23rd March – Mr Kayode Damali

BCUR – two years on

After ‘scraping through’ college in South London Kayode graduated with a First Class Honours from MMU and was subsequently elected Vice President of the Students’ Union and Governor of the University. He was also an elected Director of the National Union of Students (NUS) during this period. Kayode worked with the BBC for the 2015 General Election. He has been broadcast to millions of viewers and listeners, representing young people on BBC Breakfast, BBC Newsbeat and various BBC Radio Stations. After attending BCUR14 as a delegate, Kayode went on to be published in the field of motivation and self-beliefs and is pursuing a career as a professional speaker. In addition, Kayode runs a start-up entertainment business and after winning Enterprise Futures 2015, he is excited to be launching a new project helping University students.
